New Year's Wildfire-Ready Bingo

Trim your trees. They'll giggle.	Crowded trees? Nature's tinderbox.	Give trees space. Drama decreases.	Old vents? Ember's playground. Nope.	Double-pane windows. Single-pane regrets.
Upgrade stuff. Fire hates it.	Blocked roads block survival. Oops.	Clear roads. Fewer car-toasted people.	Neighbors love space. So do engines.	Show up. Don't ghost us.
Bring a neighbor. Multiply awesome.	Lazy neighbors lose houses. Huh.	Winter walk. Summer flex.	Know your duff. (It's flammable.)	Plant smarter. Fire gets dumber.
Mulch touching house? Bold choice.	No welcome mats for embers.	Embers love lumber. Don't enable.	Meet a new neighbor today.	Take a Winter Walk.
Move mulch off siding.	Attend one workshop.	Clear leaves at foundation.	Help limb a neighbor's tree.	Relocate woodpile 30 feet.
